

*It's not easy to show her how special she is,
But here's a great place to start.*

She inspires hope in others with her thoughtful actions, making the world around her a little warmer. And though she would never ask for the spotlight, Natchez Community Hospital wants to give her the recognition she deserves. Nominate the Caring Woman in your life by February 1, 2010 to be considered as one of Natchez Community Hospital's Caring Women of 2010. Our celebration of Caring Women will be held on February 23, 2010, to honor one winner in each of the following categories:

LEADERSHIP

one who inspires others to take action for a common good

PERSEVERANCE

one who has overcome personal adversity

MENTOR

*one who invests in helping another as a counselor,
role model, helper or encourager*

DEFENDER

one who champions the cause of a disadvantaged person or group

PROMISE

a young woman of 14 to 18 years old who demonstrates a commitment to high personal standards

Natchez Community Hospital

Additional nomination forms are available
at the Natchez Community Hospital campus, 129 Jefferson Davis Boulevard.

Nominations may be made by any person over the age of 18. Applications are due by February 1, 2010 to Natchez Community Hospital, 129 Jefferson Davis Boulevard, Natchez, MS 39120. Applications received after February 1, 2010 will not be considered for awards. Only the first 100 women nominated will be considered for these recognitions.
